

RUSSIAN TROOPS REACH ENGLAND ON WAY TO FRANCE

GERMAN ARMY NOW PRESSING VERY CLOSE TO PARIS

NEW POPE CHOSEN; CARDINAL CHIESA IS TO BE BENEDICT XV

Prince of Church But Few Months, Leading Opponent of Modernists --American Cardinals too Late

ROME, Sept. 3.—Cardinal Giacomo Della Chiesa, archbishop of Bologna, Italy, was today elected supreme pontiff of the Catholic hierarchy in succession to the late Pope Pius X, who died August 20. His coronation, under the name of Benedict XV, will take place September 6. Immediately after his election, the pontiff said he could not imagine how his frail being was capable of enduring the enormous weight of responsibility thrown upon his shoulders, especially at a moment when all the countries of Europe were stained with blood, when the wounds inflicted upon humanity also were inflicted on the church, and when countless victims of the war were being cut down. The war, he said, had armed faithful against faithful, priest against priest, while the bishops of each country offered prayers for the success of the army of his own nation. But victory for one side meant slaughter to the other, the destruction of children equally dear to the heart of the pontiff. In Session Four Days. The convocation of the Sacred College has been in session since the morning of Monday, August 31, and the final vote was not taken until this evening. When the name of Cardinal Della Chiesa was called out by the cardinal secretaries an overwhelming majority of two-thirds vote, there was much excitement among the members of the conclave. Then followed the traditional formula, the cardinal being asked as to whether he accepted the election. Amid breathless silence he answered in the affirmative, but his reply, owing to profound emotion, was scarcely audible. Immediately all the cardinals removed the canopies from above their heads, this being the tangible sign that the leadership of the church had passed from them to the newly elected pope. Later during the course of a reception of laymen, the pope spoke of America, which he said was especially dear to him. He expressed great admiration for the genius of its people, which was comparable only to their religious zeal, and then he added, "I am glad that my first apostolic benediction abroad will be forwarded to America, where the American cardinals will at a later date impart it to the people directly." The pontiff also expressed the hope that with America in favor of peace, the prayers raised to the Almighty throughout the world, would mean that peace would come soon. In the history of papal conclaves, the present conclave was unique, inasmuch as, theoretically, the election of any cardinal was possible, while in previous conclaves there were special designations, forbidding the election of certain cardinals on the objection of one or another of the Catholic monarchies. First Notification. Prince Chigi-Albani, one of the assistants to the pope in his papal household, was notified at 11:15 a. m. that Cardinal Della Chiesa had been elected. At 11:20 o'clock Monsignor Miscellani, sub-prefect of the Sacred Palaces, and governor of the conclave, received a communication from the new pope naming the cardinal secretary of the Basilica of St. Peter, he opened, because he purposed in a short time to issue his proclamation. At this same hour — 11:20 — the master of ceremonies appeared on the central balcony of St. Peter's and spread out the red carpet. The crowd below, which had been waiting for hours in the square in the expectation of an announcement as to the outcome of the deliberations of the Sacred College, understood that a selection had been reached. The people applauded vigorously. At 11:35, Cardinal Della Chiesa appeared on the balcony with Monsignor Capesio, bearing the pope's cross on his right, and pronounced the ritual announcing the election of Cardinal Della Chiesa. To this he added that the new pope had chosen the name of Benedict XV. Again the crowd of several thousand persons cheered and at once began to make their way into the basilica to hear the benediction of the new pontiff. At fifteen minutes before twelve, the new pope appeared on an inner balcony of St. Peter's clad in his pontifical robes. The balcony was hung with red velvets, and a heavy golden fringe decorated the railing. The pontiff pronounced the Apostolic benediction to the kneeling crowd below, and immediately afterwards withdrew and entered his apartments. It is asserted on good authority in Rome today that the new pope will appoint Cardinal Domenico Ferrata as his secretary. First Consistory. The pope has decided to hold his first consistory next Tuesday, when he will confer the Red Hat on Cardinals Anthony Mennini, archbishop of Palermo, and Cardinal Guiseppe Menendez, archbishop of Toledo, Spain. Both were created cardinals by Pope Pius X at the consistory last May. The pope will deliver on Tuesday his first allocution, which will give to the world the program of his pontificate. One of the brothers of the pontiff is an admiral in the Italian Royal navy and another is a captain in the Italian navy. The first appointment made by the pope was that of Monsignor Parolin, nephew of Pope Pius X, to be canon of St. Peter's. Cardinals' Submission. ROME, Sept. 3.—On the election of Cardinal Della Chiesa, Monsignor Poglia, secretary of the conclave, with the master of ceremonies, the dean of the cardinals, and others high in the church, bowed down before the chair in which Cardinal Della Chiesa was seated. He asked if the cardinal would accept the pontificate, and upon an affirmative reply, all the canopies above the cardinals' thrones were lowered, excepting that of Cardinal Della Chiesa. In answer to the question of the dean of the cardinals, the new pope said he desired to take the name of Benedict XV. Monsignor Poglia, assisted by the other officials, recorded the act of election and the acceptance, and the members of the conclave then entered the Sistine chapel, with the pope. The pontiff was clothed in a flowing white robe, red slippers and high stock, with a broad red cravat. Cardinal Della Chiesa placed over his shoulders a red cloth, bordered with gold. The pope then mounted the throne to receive the homage of the cardinals. The cardinals first kissed the feet and then the hands of the pontiff, who addressed them in Latin. (Continued on Page 15.)

JOHNSON OPENS HIS CAMPAIGN FOR RE-ELECTION

Addresses 3000 People at Oakland on Issues Raised By Reactionary Critics

OAKLAND, Sept. 3.—Announcing that he would neither give nor accept quarter in what he termed "a vituperative, mendacious, bitter and vindictive campaign," Governor Hiram W. Johnson opened his re-election campaign here tonight at a rally in Fremont Pavilion. The auditorium had seats for more than 3,000 persons and was well-filled, and about 400 vice-presidents occupied the stage with the speakers. State Senator Arthur H. Brown was presiding officer. Governor Johnson and John M. Eschelman, Progressive and Republican nominee for lieutenant governor, were the principal speakers. So termed "freak legislation" came in for many words of defense during Governor Johnson's address. At the outset Johnson challenged John D. Fredericks, Republican gubernatorial nominee, to point out the measures enacted during Progressive administration deemed "freakish." "At the opening of this campaign we ask of Mr. Fredericks, what are the 'freaks and fancies' to which you allude?" said the governor. "Stand up, sir, and point out the legislation you describe as 'freak'." "If the remnants of the old machine dare not put its finger on a single law that it would repeal, then we may feel either that our actions have the entire approval of the people, or that, with ulterior motives, our opponents are seeking by hypocrisy or chicanery to obtain power to do that which they dare not tell the people they do intend to do." Governor Johnson carries his campaign to Santa Clara valley tomorrow and next day, speaking at San Jose and Palo Alto. Next Monday a week's campaign in Los Angeles will be begun.

Governor's Address.

The present campaign in California, of which this meeting marks the opening, in its tenor is so sharply defined that intelligent conclusion by those who have at heart the welfare of the state ought not to be difficult.

Kirtle of Chicago was elected president of the Union railroad at a meeting of directors held today in New York.

CARRANZA NOT THE "PRESIDENT"

Is Just Military Chief of Mexico and So Eligible

WASHINGTON, Sept. 3.—So far as the United States is concerned, General Venustiano Carranza is not provisional president of Mexico, but "first chief of the Constitutional army" in temporary charge of the executive power of the republic. President Wilson himself so explained the status of the Mexican affairs in his discussing Mexican affairs with callers today. Wilson said that so far as he had been informed, Carranza did not style himself "provisional president," retaining the title he had used since Madero was overthrown. The significance of the President's explanation lies in the fact that General Villa informed the United States that during the conference at Torreon, when the first Villa-Carranza break was adjusted, an agreement was reached for a convention of all generals and representatives of the Constitutionalists at Mexico City to designate a provisional president. Villa made clear that Carranza was selected, he could not, under the constitution, be a candidate to succeed himself in the general election. Carranza wished to enter the race, Villa insisted that he must relinquish his present position as first chief in favor of a provisional president acceptable to all factions. The followers of Carranza have accepted the program was indicated by the news that Carranza admitted not having assumed the title of provisional president. It is considered likely in official circles that when a provisional president is chosen, recognition will be extended, though American forces probably will not be withdrawn from Vera Cruz until after an election is held.

NEW HAVEN TO GO TO RECEIVER

WASHINGTON, Sept. 3.—After a day of conference between Attorney-General Gregory and attorneys of the New Haven railroad, details of the agreed decree for the peaceful dissolution of that system were determined upon and department officials were confident tonight it would be signed tomorrow and submitted to the United States district court in New York within a few days. The decree provides that the New Haven place the Boston and Maine railroad in Connecticut, and the Rhode Island trolley lines, in the hands of receivers, who shall dispose of them within a specified period. The New Haven's rejection of the so-called sound money plan is not touched upon, but the question of their retention is left to the Interstate Commerce Commission.

WARNS DEMOCRATS OF THE SINGLE TERM PLATFORM PLEDGE

WASHINGTON, Sept. 3.—Senator Borah, Republican, read into the Senate record today the declaration of the Democratic Baltimore platform for a single presidential term. The senator made no comment, but Republican senators viewed his action as supplementary to Vice-President Marshall's declaration yesterday that President Wilson should be allowed to succeed himself in 1916, and would be the unanimous choice of his party.

JOHNSON'S NAME FOR GOVERNOR

(Special to the Republican) SACRAMENTO, Sept. 3.—The written vote for Governor Johnson on the Republican and Democratic ballots is of surprising proportions as revealed by the official canvass of the secretary of state. The returns received this far show the following written in results: For Johnson: Rep. 132, 139; Dem. 121, 115; Total 253, 254. For Johnson: Rep. 132, 139; Dem. 121, 115; Total 253, 254.

THINKS THIS IS CHANCE FOR BOERS TO REVOLT AGAIN

EL PASO, Texas, Sept. 3.—General E. J. Viljoen, who in the Anglo-Boer war was second in command under Louis Botha, the Boer commander-in-chief, called today to Botha at Pretoria, as follows: "This is a most opportune time for South Africa to cast off English rule forever. All Boers in this country will rally to the old flag." Viljoen is a resident of New Mexico. Before the African war he was adjutant to President Kruger. He was connected with the Madero revolution as military adviser to the late President Madero.

AMERICAN FLAG IS RESTORED IN BUTTE

Martial Law in Full Force —Only 39 Men Fail to Go to Work

BUTTE, Mont., Sept. 3.—Martial law was made more effective in Butte tonight by Major D. J. Donohue, who named Lieutenant Arthur A. Baker as news censor. A summary court was organized by Major Joseph J. Root, who assumed the jurisdiction of the police judge and tried the cases of all persons arrested by the police. Of the 3,200 miners employed on the day shift of the Anaconda Copper Mining Company in the Butte camp, it was said that only thirty-three failed to report for duty today. The closing of saloons has given credit by nine bosses for the large percentage of men reporting. Members of the Western Federation of Miners were jubilant over the arrest of seven men connected with the news agency. These were tried tonight by a military court and sentenced to three months in jail. Later the fine and sentence were suspended providing the men would leave Butte within twelve hours. For the first time since July 4 the American flag flew from the city hall, which is under military control. Provost Marshal Frank Conley, who has taken charge of the city hall, issued the order to raise the flag. He also ordered that flags be placed over the doors of the police department in the hall.

SUNKEN FRIGATE MARKED

WASHINGTON, Sept. 3.—The position of the old British frigate Minden in Baltimore harbor, aboard which Francis Scott Key wrote the "Star Spangled Banner," after the bombardment of Fort Mifflin, 100 years ago, is to be marked by a buoy. It will be known as the "Star Spangled Banner buoy" and probably will be placed in position tomorrow by the Lighthouse service.

SULZER VERY BUSY

ALBANY, N. Y., Sept. 3.—William Sulzer, deposed governor of New York, will seek re-election this fall as a Progressive. Petitions containing more than 4,000 signatures, designating him as a candidate in the November primary, were filed today. Sulzer is also making the nomination for governor on both the Prohibition and American parties.

AEROPLANE PATROL NOW GUARDS PARIS FROM SKY ENEMIES

Germans Have Approached to Within Thirty-Two Miles of Metropolis --Great Bloodshed in East

As the lines around Paris tighten and the German forces draw closer to the French capital, the official statements regarding the progress of the war grow briefer and more and more lacking in details. So far as the public is concerned, little is actually known as to how the armies in the field are facing. Most of the information made public from official quarters is of a negative character, as for instance the announcement of the French war office that there has been no contact with the German forces in the region of Compiègne and Salines, since Wednesday and the situation in the northeast has not changed. The towns are respectively 45 and 32 miles northeast of the French capital, and they appear to mark the points nearest Paris to which the German advance guards have approached. With the removal of the government to Bordeaux, all efforts around Paris have been directed to preparations for the threatened investment of the capital by the Germans. In addition, the French authorities have ordered aeroplane patrols to guard against any further raids by German aviators. A number of French aeroplanes are continually flying in the neighborhood of Paris and others are kept in readiness with guns, to attack any of the Germans who appear in the sky. The attitude of Turkey is still awaited with anxiety, and a Petrograd, (St. Petersburg) despatch says she is mobilizing on the Persian boundary, but slowly. Another list of British casualties, officially reported at London, number 5,228, of which 470 are killed and wounded, and 4,758 are missing. The last shows a large percentage of officers. Reports through Serbian sources state that at the battle of Jadar, between 200,000 Austrians and 180,000 Serbians, 140,000 Austrians were killed, wounded or taken prisoners. Reports by way of Rome from the Russo-Austrian fighting ground in Galicia state that the Austrians have lost more than 100,000 men and that the occupation of Hamburg is imminent. After three days' fighting, Amiens, in northwest France, has been taken by the Germans. President Wilson will today call on Congress to enact special taxes to cover the loss to the national treasury through reduction of import revenue. South American trade is reported officially to be in a state of complete paralysis because of suspension of European credit, and suffering is already felt keenly.

Czar Sends 72,000 Troops to Catch Kaiser in Rear

NEW YORK, Sept. 3.—A Russian army of 72,000 men, transported from Archangel, Russia, was landed at Aberdeen, on the east coast of Scotland on August 27 and conveyed on special trains to Harwich, Grimsby and Dover, where transports were waiting to take them to Ostend, in Belgium, according to officers and passengers of the Cunard liner Mauretania, which reached here tonight from Liverpool. Every precaution was taken by the English and Russian military authorities, persons on the Mauretania said, to keep the fact that foreign soldiers were being transported to England from becoming known, and the service on the East Coast Railway lines was suspended during the seventeen hours the troop trains were on their journey. It was generally believed by those on the Mauretania who made statements that the Russians would be joined at Ostend by British marines waiting there to receive them, and that the combined forces would cooperate with the Belgian army at Antwerp.

War Bulletins

HAVRE, via Paris, Sept. 3, 7:15 p. m.—The United States cruiser Tanconco sailed from here today for Falmouth. She had on board about 1,000 Americans. PETROGRAD, (St. Petersburg) via London, Sept. 3, 4:52 p. m.—A short session of the Duma is expected to convene at an early date to deal with taxation. The government already has raised the inland telegraph rates from 5 kopecks to 10 kopecks (A kopeck equals two-thirds of a cent in American money.) The postal rates also have been increased. NEW YORK, Sept. 3.—The Commercial Cable company issued a statement tonight, saying that it had been advised by the Chinese Telegraph company that communication with Tsingtau, the German base in Kiaochow, is totally interrupted. PARIS, Sept. 3, 6:15 p. m.—Beginning tonight no persons may leave or enter Paris between 8 o'clock in the evening and 5 o'clock in the morning without a military pass. Automobiles may enter freely during the day, but cannot leave without permits. Persons are permitted to pass without challenge through certain gates while other gates are closed. Gardeners bringing fresh vegetables to the city are permitted access at half hour intervals during the night. PARIS, Sept. 3, 11:45 a. m. (Delayed)—In an official statement issued today the war office says: "There has been no contact with the German forces in the region of Compiègne and Senlis, since yesterday. Precautions have been taken to stop any offensive movement of the enemy. Measures have also been taken to provide for the pursuit of German aeroplanes and particularly those of the armored type which will be prevented from flying over Paris. "The situation in the northeast is the same as yesterday." PARIS, Sept. 3, 4:32 p. m.—An immense and complicated system of entrenchments is being constructed outside the city. It is reported that the engineers in charge of the work are keeping several hundred thousand men busy. Germans Hope to Draw Sweden Into Russian War LONDON, Sept. 3.—(8:10 p. m.)—Telegraphing from Stockholm, the correspondent of the Star says: "There is great anxiety felt in the Swedish capital, because of the efforts Germany is making, as shown by articles in the German newspapers, to induce Sweden to abandon her attitude of neutrality and take the field as an ally of Germany. The object sought is to weaken the Russian attack in East Prussia by means of a Swedish attack on Finland."

Secretary Daniels Approves Report For Project Opposite Golden Gate

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 3.—Plans for the creation of a great naval base in San Francisco bay recently laid before the navy department by Rear Admiral Charles F. Pond of the Twelfth naval district, have been approved by Secretary Daniels and the general board, it was announced here today. The suggested site for the proposed base is on the mainland shore about midway between West Berkeley and Richmond and if constructed as planned, it will comprise docks, dry-docks, repair shops, all inland basin, magazines and equipment stores for complete housing, repairs and outfitting vessels of the Pacific fleet. "The best place for the United States to establish its Pacific naval base—in fact an ideal place—is opposite the Golden Gate," Admiral Pond today. "Being eleven miles inside the heads and sixteen miles inside the bar, this location would be beyond the range of the biggest guns of an hostile fleet. "Mare Island should be kept up for a naval magazine including a smokeless powder plant, a naval hospital and brigade post for expeditionary marine forces."

PRESIDENT WILL TODAY CALL ON CONGRESS FOR $100,000,000 TAX

JOINT SESSION OF HOUSES IS CALLED

Underwood Submits to President Internal Revenue Tax Details Not to Be Given Out Until Read in Congress

WASHINGTON, Sept. 3.—Congress will meet in joint session tomorrow to hear President Wilson's message asking for a war tax revenue measure that will provide $100,000,000. A concurrent resolution providing for the joint session was adopted today in both houses.

It is understood the President will confine his message to the presentation of the necessity for emergency revenues without suggesting the means for raising the funds. It is said to be his desire, however, that the tax fall not too heavily upon any particular class of citizens.

The President submitted the message today to Representative Underwood, chairman of the ways and means committee, which will frame the revenue bill. The latter communicated to the President the framework of the tax plan, and his associates have proposed to meet the expected deficit caused by the falling off in customs receipts.

Underwood said later the plans were calculated to produce $100,000,000 by an "internal revenue tax on a very few commodities," but would not discuss it further.

Details of the scheme have been carefully guarded by congressmen, but have been leaked to the press for many days. Administration leaders desire to have the method of taxation clearly determined before it is made known in order to avoid interference from various interests to be affected. The measure will be ready for introduction early next week.

President Wilson today told callers he did not expect the war tax measure to be in effect for a long time. He pointed out that if the tariff had not been changed before the beginning of the war, the deficit in the treasury would be greater. Under the new tariff he said, the finances of the treasury do not depend as largely upon the tariff as formerly.

JAPAN MAY SEND CRUISERS

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 3.—More Japanese warships may come to the Pacific Coast, the Japanese consulate here said today, in order to keep open the lanes of travel between this port and Japan.

A published report that Japan intended to send three battleships, three armored cruisers, one scout cruiser and seven torpedo boats, was characterized as "absolutely incredible."

That provisions were being bought for the Japanese warships, the consulate would neither affirm nor deny. It was absolutely without advice or instructions, it said, from Tokyo.

The possibility that more warships might be sent was merely a supposition based on the acknowledged fact that the Japanese navy has been increasing its Pacific fleet, and the Orient are now poorly protected. Any additional protective force sent probably would consist of a cruiser or two. Their base of supplies would necessarily be the base now utilized by the Japanese-Esquilma, B. C.

PRISONERS TAKEN TO THE FIJIS

LONDON, Sept. 3, 10:25 a. m.—A dispatch received here from Wellington, New Zealand, declares that the governor of New Zealand has received a message stating that the German governor of Samoa has surrendered and that he has been sent with other German prisoners to the Fiji Islands.

The landing of British troops in Samoa was carried out with great expedition. The United States had hoisted over German Samoa at 12:30 o'clock in the afternoon of August 29.

The Samoan or Navigator Islands, in the Pacific ocean, up to the present time, have been owned jointly by the United States and Germany, each country having in possession of each island. Upolu and Savaii were the German holdings.

The British force which took possession of this German territory was sent from New Zealand. The announcement of British occupancy was first made through London August 30.

The Fiji Islands are a British colony about 550 miles southwest of Samoa.

Commander Suicided.

LONDON, Sept. 2, 4:50 p. m.—Prince Frederick William of Lippe took his own life, following a mistake of his regiment, according to Lady Randolph Churchill, formerly Miss Jennie Jerome of New York, who has just arrived here from Germany, coming by way of Holland.

The true story of the death of Prince Frederick William of Lippe, she said, "is that he committed suicide. He was commanding a German cavalry regiment before Lippe on August 4, when his men, in the darkness of evening, nearly annihilated a German infantry regiment which it had mistaken for Belgians. The prince shot himself fearing to face the anger of Emperor William. His widow, with whom I am acquainted, was informed of his death on August 14."

Austrians Go West.

LONDON, Sept. 3, 4:30 p. m.—The Amsterdam correspondent of Reuters' Telegram Company telegraphs that last week 1,800 Austrian soldiers belonging to the heavy artillery corps of "Frische," passed through Cologne, on their way to the western theater of the war.

Nurses for Europe.

NEW YORK, Sept. 3.—Each nurse who has volunteered for European war service and who will leave for the scene of action Monday on the Hamburg-American liner Hamburg, which has been chartered by the American Cross, has been promised to remain in the service six months.

If any of the nurses desire to return before expiration of the six months, they must pay their own expenses. Should the war last longer than six months, all those who desire will be returned and others sent in their places.

The Hamburg will carry thousands of pounds of cotton, 300,000 yards of gauze, thousands of millions of iodine and cases of other and eight complete sets of surgical instruments.

Americans Shut Out.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 3.—The war department was informed today by the Russian, German and French governments that only army officers of their allies would be permitted to accompany their troops in the field. The war department's request to send observers with the Austrian and British forces was granted.

Saves Coal Cargo.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 3.—Laden with coal that would have been precious to German cruisers, the British bark Inverarity, ninety-two days out from New Castle, N. S. W., arrived here today, greatly to the relief of her owners, Messrs. R. G. & Co., of which firm Messrs. James W. R. & Co. is a member. Captain Holmes knew nothing of the European war until he was spoken to 350 miles out from San Francisco and refused to believe it then, until the other skipper showed him the latest newspapers.

Transportation.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 3.—President Wilson next Wednesday will see several railroad presidents to discuss business conditions growing out of the war and the subject of the transportation of food and other products.

Food Still Cheap.

VIENNA, via Copenhagen and London, Sept. 3, 5 a. m.—One hundred and forty Americans, chiefly from Budapest, left for Berlin in a special train August 31. Only a few Americans are still here and all who desire to go home will leave this week.

Although the war has now lasted more than a month, the prices of foodstuffs in Vienna have not risen and in some cases even they are lower than last year. Meat, eggs, lard and several other commodities are cheaper, while coffee, sugar and milk remain unchanged. Butter and flour are slightly higher in price.

The minister of agriculture says supplies of foodstuffs are ample for the whole country even if the war lasts a year or more.

Bomb Attack on Antwerp

LONDON, Sept. 2, 7 p. m.—The Antwerp correspondent of the Central News describes the second aerial raid on Antwerp by a German Zeppelin, which he said occurred just before dawn. The bombardment, he explained, demonstrated from a military point of view the futility of the Germans' efforts to do any damage of importance. His description of the aerial bombardment follows:

"I was awakened by a rattle of rifle fire and the crash of exploding bombs. I was just in time to see the ship disappearing southward at a tremendous height. There was an incessant rattle of shots from rifles and machine guns from the darkened town and shrapnel could be seen exploding like meteorites in the trail of the flying marauders. All around from points of vantage on the high buildings, spurts of flames indicated the efforts of the firemen to bring down the hated Zeppelin."

Silesian Defense.

LONDON, Sept. 3, 5 a. m.—Two American oil engineers who have reached London from Rumania, via Bucharest and Berlin bring some interesting stories of the scenes they witnessed on their trip. Breslau and in fact the whole of Silesia, they said, was heavily mined and they also witnessed great aerial activity in Germany.

Food was cheap in Berlin, they said, and all restaurants, even the best, had largely reduced their tariffs. Business was proceeding as usual, though recruiting stations in Unter Den Linden had longed for men waiting to be taken into the army.

They visited the flying station and estimated that more than fifty Zeppelins were in readiness to start at any time. There were also a hundred or more aeroplanes, and great activity in constructing new craft and training men. Scores of aeroplanes were in the air one time, each carrying three men.

From the general conversation they heard while in Germany they gathered that there would be a combined attack by the naval fleets at an auspicious moment.

Instructor Volunteers.

STANFORD UNIVERSITY, Cal., Sept. 3.—Robert P. P. Pelissier, instructor in the Romance language department of Stanford, has left for France to fight for his country. He is a reservist, but had not been called to the colors. The University has granted him a year's leave of absence.

Traffic for Germany.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 3.—No German port is blockaded and there is nothing to hinder clean traffic between neutral countries and Germany, according to a statement by the press bureau at Berlin, forwarded to the State Department today by the American ambassador to Germany.

The statement says:

"Neutral ships bound for German North Sea ports must clear by day for a point ten sea miles northward of Heligoland. There Germany provides for pilots to conduct the ships into the German port."

"Neutral ships must steer directly for Baltic ports."

German News First.

LONDON, Sept. 2, 4:35 p. m.—(Delayed in transmission)—The Evening News publishes the following dispatch from its correspondent at Milan, Italy:

"Italian newspaper correspondents are complaining of the great delay in transmission on telegrams filed in London by Italian newspaper correspondents addressed to papers in Italy. These messages take from twenty to thirty hours to come through, while press telegrams from Berlin take only four and five hours to reach Italy."

"As a result the German version of events always precedes the English version, which is often the only opinion to such an extent that first impressions, which always are given by Germany, are most detrimental and difficult to correct."

"The English authorities in their own interests should give more facilities to Italian correspondents in Lon-

TURKEY OBJECTS TO AMERICAN CRUISER

Should Not Go Through Dardanelles—Suggests Alternative

WASHINGTON, Sept. 3.—Turkey has declined to grant the request of the United States for permission to send the cruiser North Carolina through the Dardanelles to Constantinople, to deliver $150,000 in gold deposited here for the relief of Americans in the Ottoman empire.

The grand vizier has informed the American government that the waters of the Dardanelles have been mined and that it would be unsafe for a vessel as large as the North Carolina to go through the straits. He declared also that it might establish a precedent for the passage of other foreign warships and suggested that the American naval yacht Scorpion, on duty constantly in Turkish waters, along with other light vessels that serve foreign missions, be sent to sea to meet the North Carolina.

This was the substance of a long cablegram received at the White House and State Department today from Ambassador Morgenthau, the first message from him in several days. He made no mention of any declaration of war but referred to a diplomatic situation as highly critical.

The ambassador reported that all Americans who wished to leave had done so and he thought funds aboard the North Carolina would be sufficient for immediate needs.

In view of the delicate situation, the American ambassador suggested that the plan of sending the Scorpion to meet the North Carolina outside the Straits be adopted. The incident was discussed at the Navy and State Departments today, and the North Carolina, now at Falmouth, England, will start tomorrow for the Mediterranean. She probably will touch at Italian ports and take aboard Assistant Secretary Breckinridge, reaching the Dardanelles in a week or ten days.

By the time of her arrival, officials expect to hear what will be decided on either Russia or Great Britain. In that event they deem it more prudent to keep the cruiser away from the scene of possible naval conflicts.

"Germany is now doing able and intelligent work to influence Italian public opinion by letting Italian correspondents in Berlin write long messages, which are forwarded immediately, and England, in doing the same, would act wisely."

NEEDY BELGIANS REACH LONDON

LONDON, Sept. 2, (8:25 p. m.)—Belgium refugees were more numerous in London today than at any other time since the war began. This would be among them had quarters at the hotels while the less prosperous were making appeals to charity.

The newspapers are raising funds for the support of the needy refugees, and tonight a band, accompanied by volunteer collectors soliciting funds for them paraded up and down the Strand. Belgian colors in the lapels of coats are a common sight on the streets of London.

Queen Elizabeth of Belgium and her children are still visiting Lord Curzon of Kedleston.

Wounded Germans.

LONDON, Sept. 3, 7:10 p. m.—A dispatch to the Evening News from Copenhagen says:

"Great numbers of wounded are arriving in Berlin daily. The trains are not unloaded until dark in order to avoid undue curiosity on the part of the public. The wounded are coming mostly from East Prussia."

Princess Louise of Belgium has been ordered to leave Vienna within twenty-four hours.

Scouts Trapped.

BERLIN (via Copenhagen and London, Sept. 3, 8:15 a. m.)—The Tagblatt publishes a dispatch from Thorn, a town in West Prussia, on the right bank of the Vistula, describing an ill-fated scouting expedition. A steamer equipped with machine guns and carrying about seventy soldiers steamed up the river into Russian territory, reaching a point north many miles from Niesam.

The party landed to reconnoiter the country and was attacked by Russian Cossacks and infantry. Only ten Germans returned with the steamer.

Canada Censorship.

MONTREAL, Sept. 3.—For the first time since war was declared the government signal service station has been ordered by the censor to suppress all reports as to shipping, coming in or going out, on the St. Lawrence river. This order follows the information from Imperial authorities that news about the movement of troops was being sent to the Germans.

Bourse Stays Closed.

PARIS, Sept. 2, (via London, 4:33 p. m.)—It was announced today that the Paris bourse, which was closed yesterday, would remain closed indefinitely.

The last quotations on the Bourse will be regarded as official.

Solve Cotton Market

NEW YORK, Sept. 3.—The New York Cotton Exchange unanimously accepted today the plan evolved by its committee and representatives of the Liverpool Cotton Association to liquidate international obligations in cotton. This is regarded as a big step toward the reopening of the exchange.

Under American Flag.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 3.—The British steamer Robert Dollar, which sailed from San Francisco and which is now at Rio Janeiro, is one of the foreign vessels which are the first to have been placed under the American flag, under the new ship register law.

Flies Over Switzerland.

COURTEOUS SERVICE

COURTESY in service is one great essential to success and we believe in the old teaching—"If a man would be greatest of all, let him be the servant of all." This is as true today as ever and as sound a principle in business as it is in morals.

Service at Gottschalk's must be the rendering of courteous attention, scrupulous care, exactness, accuracy, methodical strictness to statement of facts regarding make, quality, style and value of merchandise offered.

Service is system, orderly arrangement, regularity in methods and procedure, from the greeting of all customers alike, and with equal courtesy, to the consummation of a sale and delivery of merchandise into a patron's hands.

This new store with its countless service features incorporates every new and approved idea in department store equipment, thus enabling us to render the most rapid, accurate and altogether efficient service possible.

Our Formal Opening And Authoritative Style Review

SUIT TO FORECLOSE ON THE ROCK ISLAND

NEW YORK, Sept. 3.—Foreclosure suit against the Chicago, Rock Island and Pacific Railroad company was brought in the federal district court here today by Central Trust company. Default of interest to the amount of $1,426,060 on the road's 4 per cent gold bonds of 2002 is alleged.

ALLEGED FRAUD ON BANK OF HOLLAND

PORTLAND, Ore., Sept. 3.—Robert J. Snow, a real estate agent; W. J. Sumner, a building contractor, and J. W. Mathes, vice consul here for The Netherlands, were arrested today as the result of the unearthing of an alleged swindle by which the International Mortgage Bank of Apeldoorn, Holland, is said to have been defrauded of more than $100,000 by means of forged mortgages.

The arrests were made following the arrival here of C. A. Babler, president of the bank. His trip was made to examine the bank's loans in this territory, and after compiling his investigation, he swore to complaints charging forgery against the three men named.

Every household has either a sideboard or a medicine chest. And every sideboard or every medicine chest should have a bottle of the purest, finest whiskey of all—Deep Spring Tennessee Whiskey. Free city deliveries. Mail orders promptly filled.

REFUSE TO LOOK INTO FISH TRUST

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 3.—Investigation into the methods employed by the so-called "fish trust" was asked today from the federal grand jury by fishermen who claimed that two large companies are refusing to pay for their fish the price stipulated in alleged contracts.

District Attorney Preston held that no matter how well proven, this charge does not constitute an infraction of federal anti-trust laws and announced that the grand jury would make a request for one week.

BETTER LET IT ALONE

If the purpose of those who inspired the employers' association dinner in Fresno last night was to repeat in Fresno the experience of Stockton, that example should be enough to hoodoo the whole movement from the start. Fresno is in industrial peace and prosperity. Stockton is in a state of demoralizing and expensive industrial turmoil. Certainly there can be no excuse for seeking to exchange our condition for Stockton's.

And the assumption that this is the purpose is not a rash one. Certainly, the leaders of a certain sort of industrial organization do not come to Fresno from Portland, San Francisco, Oakland and Stockton merely to eat dinner and to listen to each other make fiery speeches. They are practical men, and their purpose is not to talk, but to act. And the act they propose here may be fairly assumed to be the same as that which they have done elsewhere.

This means that it is proposed in Fresno to organize the employers for the purpose of "disorganizing" the employees; to make a closed combination against the closed shop, and to interpose collective resistance to collective bargaining.

No such attempt can succeed, and it is to be hoped that none will be made. Logically the scheme is indefensible, absurd. And practically it is immeasurably unworkable. The statement of Bart Harvey that the merchants are generally opposed to it and have refused to contribute to it, doubtless indicates that it will not be seriously pressed.

This does not mean that employers should remain unorganized in the face of organized labor. Quite the contrary; employers ought to organize. But they ought to have the sense to organize as intelligently as the labor unions, instead of taking the I. W. W. or the defunct Knights of Labor as their model. The labor unions are organized by trades, to deal with their respective employers, but are federated also into a general organization, to support each other in time of stress. The I. W. W. syndicalists are organized as a class organization, to fight the other class. They dump barbers, bakers, butchers, and tailors into one undistinguished body, not to bargain with their employers, but to undermine the employment system. These I. W. W. organizations follow this precise plan. They unite grocers, druggists, brick manufacturers, building contractors and street pavers into one undistinguished body, not to bargain with their employers, but to undermine the system of collective bargaining. The method is destructive and pernicious, no matter which side uses it. But it is the precise method, and the only method, by which the organizations have operated elsewhere when started by the men who are seeking to start one here.

The organization of labor has come to stay, and nothing can stop it. And this means not merely that individual workmen shall be free to join labor organizations without being individually discriminated against in their individual employment by individual employers. It means that when they join unions they shall be dealt with collectively, through these unions. Organizations of employers, to do this dealing collectively on their side also, are legitimate and useful. Organizations of employers to prevent, by collective action on one side, collective dealing with the organizations on the other side—and this is the only sort now agitated—are not only a denial of the most fundamental principle of fair play, but are institutions which do nothing but harm to their members and to the community.

In fact, the worst thing that can happen to such an organization, or to its members, is to succeed in its purpose. For, if you destroy the trades unions, or refuse to deal with them, you soon find you have the I. W. W. to deal with instead.

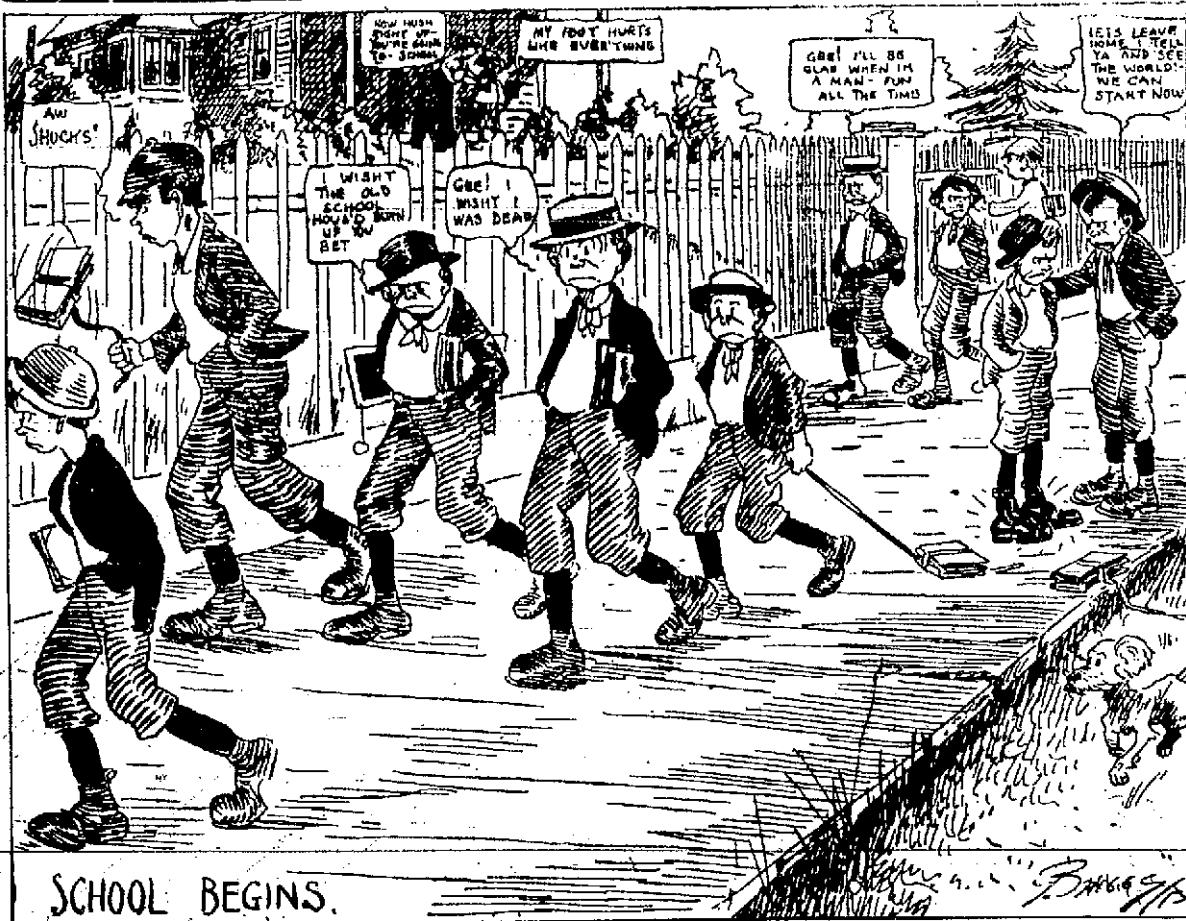

It is not a question of the pacific or belligerent intent of the members of these organizations. If you organize the most peaceful persons along the lines of the I. W. W. or the A. M. and E., you are bound to have fighting, because the very weapons of such an organization are useless for anything else but fighting. If you organize the most unreasonable and belligerent persons along the lines of the American Federation of Labor, or of the American Newspaper Publishers' Association and corresponding organizations on the employers' side, you are bound sooner or later to get peace, simply because you are equipped with the tools of peace. If there is to be any organization of employers in Fresno, let it be along these latter lines, under the leadership of men who believe in them.

Fresno remembers the fortunate escape a few years ago of the attempt to commit the Chamber of Commerce to the late lamented Citizens' Alliance. It sees, next door, the regrettable consequences of the opposite course in Stockton. Experience and example thus both point the way of prudence—which is to let the proposed scheme severely alone. We are glad to know that this is the policy of the merchants, and hope it will be that of the manufacturers and other employers, also.

CHOOSE RIGHT MEN

Among the candidates who will probably be selected by a nominating committee to propose to the people of New York as members of the constitutional convention, will be Alton B. Parker, former chief justice of the Court of Appeals, and former Democratic candidate for President; former Chief Justice Edgar M. Cullen, who presided so admirably at the impeachment trial of Governor Sulzer; Herman Ridder, D. Cady Herick, and John Mitchell. Whoever else may be selected to the constitutional convention, these men at least will be members of it, and any convention in which they participate will be a distinguished convention, regardless of the quality of its other members.

This example sufficiently refutes one of the commonest arguments against the proposal on the ballot this fall in California to authorize the calling of a constitutional convention. Everybody agrees that the constitution of California is the worst in the world, and everybody agrees that we ought to have a new constitution, provided the person agreeing could be the person to make the new constitution. Each of us trusts his own wisdom as adequate to the task. But there is a considerable sentiment (but neither the collective wisdom of the people nor the individual capacities of any set of men likely to be chosen by the people will be sufficiently responsible. The answer, of course, is that in the experience of states, membership in a constitutional convention is the highest honor which can be conferred by that state on its most distinguished citizens, and that men will consent to serve and can be elected to that office who probably would not consent to run and still more probably could not be elected to the legislature, or even to the national Congress. If the objection to a new constitution is not the difficulty of the task, but the inability of the people to choose men adequate to the task, that objection may be dismissed at once.

RESTORING COMMERCE

The law for the government insurance of trans-oceanic cargoes and vessels has been passed, but it will not do to look for immediate resumption of shipments on a large scale as the result of this law alone. The government insurance can guarantee against no risk except that of destruction by war. A still more serious problem for the shipper at present is that of getting the money for his goods in case they arrive safely. There is now in existence practically no mechanism of international exchange. To a limited extent exchange with England is now possible; with the continent it does not exist. Consequently, as things stand for the moment, the shipper can be absolutely certain of getting his money for his consignment only in the event that his ship is destroyed and he collects the insurance. The government insurance is a very proper and necessary step, but the full resumption of commerce must await also the restoration of the mechanism of international exchange. It is encouraging to know that plans for this also are already under way.

MINERS AGREE ON WAGE SCALE

KANSAS CITY, Sept. 1.—The new interstate working contract agreed upon at recent conferences of representatives of the United Mine Workers of America from the states of Missouri, Kansas, Oklahoma and Arkansas, and the Southwestern Interstate Coal Operators' Association, was ratified at a convention of the miners here late tonight. No change is made in the wage scales or hours in the new contract, but each of the three districts affected, 14, 21 and 22, is given local autonomy.

The position of permanent arbitrator is done away with and in its place each of the three districts will have a board of arbitration, composed of three operators and three miners.

POLAND OF TODAY

WASHINGTON, D. C., Sept. 3.—The Poland of 1715 was larger than any other European country, with the exception of Russia. Today it has no political entity, says the National Geographic Society, at Washington, D. C., in a statement issued today. Two centuries ago its domain reached from the Baltic to the Carpathians, and stretched from east to west for a distance of approximately 500 miles. "The first partition of Poland came in 1772, when Prussia and Austria, alarmed by the progress of Russia in Poland, suggested, as a means of maintaining the equilibrium of Europe, that all three powers readjust their territories at the expense of Poland," reads the society's bulletin. "Poland lay utterly helpless. She lost about one-fifth of her population and one-fourth of her territory. The second partition in 1793 reduced Poland to one-third of her original dimensions. With a population of about 3,500,000, a third treaty of partition was signed in 1795. The Congress of Vienna, in 1815, divided Poland between Prussia, Austria and Russia, with the exception of Cracow, which was erected into a republic included in Galicia. Poles and Galeses, with a population of 2,000,000, were left to Prussia. Austria remained in possession of Galicia, with its 1,600,000 inhabitants. Lithuania and the Ruthenian Palatinates continued to be incorporated with Russia. The remnant was constituted as the so-called Congress Kingdom, under the Emperor of Russia as the King of Poland."

"In the same year, Czar Alexander I, granted the new kingdom a constitution, which declared it to be united to Russia. In the person of the Czar, as a separate political entity, Poland retained its flag and a national army. In 1930, following the outbreak of the French revolution, a military revolt took place in Warsaw. This was lasted for ten months, and at its conclusion the Congress Kingdom was reduced to the position of a province. The last remaining remnant of Poland's separate political existence was Cracow, and it was finally occupied by Austria in 1846. The last attempt of the Poles to achieve independence was in 1863. It was marked by no real battle and the uprising was soon repressed. The national history of Poland closes with this attempt at freedom. In 1863, by ukase of the emperor of Russia, the Poles were absolutely incorporated with that of Russia, and the use of the Polish language in public places and for public purposes was prohibited.

"Russian Poland contains the first line of defense of the Russian Empire on its western frontier. The marshy lands, covered with forests on the western bank of Vistula, offer a natural defense against an army advancing from the west, and they are strengthened by a number of fortresses on that river. The center of these latter is Warsaw.

"The Polish race, rather of medium stature and well built. Those in the south are dark and in the north are inclined to be fair. While well endowed by nature they are today remarkable in that energy which characterizes the northern races of Europe, and in a sense of unity which has been the strength of their present rulers, and the reason of their present ruin. For several years past the German element has been annually increasing both in number and in influence. In Russian Poland, from remote antiquity Poland has been celebrated for the production and export of grain. Since 1815 there has been a remarkable development of manufacturing enterprise. The railroads of Russian Poland have an aggregate length of 1,800 miles.

"The entire administration of the province is under the governor-general residing at Warsaw. After the insurrection of 1863 all towns with less than 2,000 inhabitants were deprived of their municipal rights. The elective municipal councils were practically abolished, and Russian officials appointed to the place. The prevalent religion is Roman Catholic.

"After a number of engagements successful to the arms of the allies, came the battle of Minden. Although in this engagement the British and Hanoverian forces, commanded by Lord George Sackville, were successful in the action, through some error it failed to put in an appearance in sufficient time to take part in the struggle.

Although the allies won the victory, immediately after the battle Prince Ferdinand of Brunswick, relative of George II, had published a statement relative to the troops under him, severely reflecting on Sackville's conduct, whereupon Lord George was furious and demanded a court-martial.

Sackville resigned his command in Germany and returned to England. Here he was charged with having disobeyed the angry English general, Sir John Mordaunt, and was sent to the Tower of London. He was released after a short stay, and returned to England. He was charged with having disobeyed the angry English general, Sir John Mordaunt, and was sent to the Tower of London. ## The Great Trials of History

TRIAL OF LORD GEORGE SACKVILLE

In the reign of George II it became quite a fashion for both King and people to run down to degradation, and even to death, any military or naval commander who published an unsuccessful through only a mere fault of judgment or misapprehension of the circumstances under which he might be acting. Admiral Byng was a sad and shameful example, and another is afforded in General Lord George Sackville, who was pursued with the same malignancy as Byng, and who would undoubtedly have perished in the same way had the sentence of the court martial been stretched to a similar extent.

General Sackville's fault was but a mistake, though a bad one, through a confusion of orders. He was made a member of one of the noblest and most ancient families in England. In 1737 he obtained a commission in the English army, when he was only twenty-one years of age, and three years later was made colonel of foot and soon afterwards advanced to the rank of major. Sackville showed himself a good soldier and won distinction with the Duke of Cumberland in Scotland in 1745. He advanced rapidly and so high had his reputation risen that in 1753 he was appointed to succeed Charles, second Duke of Marlborough as commander-in-chief of the British forces in Germany.

After a number of engagements successful to the arms of the allies, came the battle of Minden. Although in this engagement the British and Hanoverian forces, commanded by Lord George Sackville, were successful in the action, through some error it failed to put in an appearance in sufficient time to take part in the struggle.

Cranby with the comment, "I know he will obey them."

Lord George Sackville made an eloquent speech in his own behalf on the nature of the evidence that had been brought against him. The purpose of his defense was that he had received so many orders that they were confusing, and therefore he was trying to set matters straightened out before he would move in the matter. Numerous witnesses were called in support of his statement.

The Court-martial pronounced the following sentence: "The court, under due consideration of the whole matter, is of opinion that Lord George Sackville is guilty of having disobeyed the order of Prince Ferdinand, and it is our opinion that Lord George Sackville is hereby adjudged unfit to serve his majesty in any military capacity whatever."

SPIRITUALISTS OPEN ANNUAL CONVENTION

Declaration of Principles Is Laid Before Public of Fresno

The nineteenth annual convention of the California Spiritualists' Union was opened yesterday morning in the Auditorium. After offering prayer and welcoming the delegates from sixty societies, Mr. C. A. Hues, president of the Fresno Chamber of Commerce, who warmly welcomed the convention to Fresno and expressed every wish that the physical inability of the mayor would not allow him to be present.

Speaking of Spiritualists, Mr. Phillips said that it was a subject commanding the attention of the civilized world—subject of tremendous import to all mankind—and he wished the convention the greatest success and hoped the large auditorium would be filled the next time it convened here.

In his reply, Mr. Hues said the convention especially appreciated the fair-minded attitude of the people of Fresno in not unduly emphasizing a subject before fair investigation. He said Spiritualism was a universal religion dealing with all questions relating to the interests of common humanity and that the whole teaching of Spiritualism might be summed up in the Golden Rule.

He spoke of the steady growth of the movement and hoped we would reach a point when the public would differentiate between the "ordained workers," who have been materially and morally improved, efficient, and common attributes of the mediums.

The Spiritualists' declaration of principles follows:

1. We believe in infinite intelligence.
2. We believe that the phenomena of nature, physical and spiritual, are the expression of infinite intelligence.
3. We affirm that the existence and personal identity of the individual continues after the change called death.
4. We affirm that communication with the so-called dead is a fact, scientifically proven by the phenomena of Spiritualism.
5. We believe that the highest morality is contained in the Golden Rule.
6. We believe that the highest morality is contained in the Golden Rule.
7. We affirm that the moral responsibility of the individual, and that he makes his own happiness or unhappiness as he obeys Nature's psychic laws.
8. We affirm that the doorway to reformation is never closed against any human soul here or hereafter.

HARVEY DECLARES MERCHANTS OPPOSE ORGANIZATION HERE OF THE M. M. AND E.

Editor Republican: My attention was called this afternoon to a movement to be launched tonight by a banquet at the Hotel Hughes to form an employers' association in Fresno, a branch of the National Merchants' Association.

During a recent trip that I made I had a talk with several of the leading merchants of Stockton, where John P. Irish Jr. has succeeded in organizing one of these associations, and where they are now working a fight, and where they are simply unbelievable. It will be a sorry day for the merchants of this city if the association is formed here.

Of course it is the privilege of anyone to start any organization that they see fit, the manufacturers may feel that they need a branch of the M. M. E. here, but I am certain that the merchants of the city are not favorable to this movement.

What I wish to make clear is that these men have not come to Fresno at the invitation of the merchants of the city, as would be the case if they were really gathered from the town of the announcements made, but that they have tried to discourage their entry here.

Yours very truly,
BART HARVEY.
Fresno, August 3, 1914.

After the evening session, the lodge closed the successful evening with appropriate remarks.

Fraternal Lodge No. 91 of the Fraternal Brotherhood held its first regular session at the residence of Sister Warner, 419 San Pablo avenue. The routine business was transacted and a check was received from the supreme lodge for the third annual payment on the total permanent disability claim of Sister Anna Jones.

After lodge closed, refreshments were enjoyed.

Arrangements were made in the business session to use the banquet room of the L. O. O. F. hall for the meeting with other arrangements can be made.

The lodge will meet at this place on next Friday night.

Women of Woodcraft.
Partly members of Circle No. 742, Women of Woodcraft, met at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Brooks, 100 Abby street, last night. After a short business session cards were played and at a late hour refreshments were served, in concluding the party.

The next meeting of the circle is to be held at the home of Mrs. L. C. San Pablo avenue.

The circle has been without a meeting, but since the destruction of the Short building, some weeks ago. The members are endeavoring to secure a new hall, but up to the present date have not been successful.

Women of Woodcraft No. 18, Women of Woodcraft was called to order with Louise Garce in the chair. Two applications for membership were received and accepted.

Neighbor Lulu Westphal from Fresno, California, was a visitor and was greeted with the circle honors. As she is making her home with Neighbor Jones, we hope to have her with us often.

Neighbor Pusey entertained thirty of the members of the circle and their homes at a delicious dinner at her country home. A delicious dinner was served and many luscious watermelons enjoyed.

A communication received from our musician, Grace Sellers, from Indianapolis, was most encouraging and as she returns to Fresno in a few days, we hope to have her with us at the next meeting.

Neighbor Madie McCall was elected to fill the unexpired term of Manager created by W. H. Fine.

The "Thimble Club" will meet next Tuesday with Neighbor M. McCall at 1555 Home avenue. Election of officers will take place and business for the fall program, such as "rummage sales and bazaar, a good attendance is urged.

NORDSTROM WINS Y. M. TOURNAMENT

Increased interest in the Y. M. C. A. weekly pocket billiard tournament marked the second week of the schedule, last night, with seven elimination games and Harry Nordstrom of the winners.

Eight players started out in the games at 7:45 and by the finish near 11 o'clock all had been eliminated with the exception of Nordstrom and Bill Smith of the winners.

The tournament was a thrilling one, with a thrilling score of 11-21. Another good game was in the semi-finals between Barnard and Nordstrom. The score was 34 to 35. Greater science was displayed in this game than in any other not excepting the final.

Several men have signed up within the last few days and the future contest promise to be interesting to a large degree. Seats have been provided around the tables for the spectators and all are invited to witness the playing.

NEW HAMPSHIRE PRIMARY
COUNTY CLERK, N. H. State, with four-hundred small towns still to be heard from, Albert W. Noyes of Peterborough was leading John C. Hutchins of Stratford tonight by the narrow margin of nine votes, for the Democratic gubernatorial nomination.

Goldwater H. Stoddard of Rochester, who won the Republican nomination, continued to increase his lead over Rusecans W. Pillsbury.

Yours for a good time, Labor Day at Fresno.

FAVORS BURNING CITY'S GARBAGE
Inspector Ellithorpe Returns From National Convention

As the result of investigations and inquiries made in the East and at Minneapolis while attending the convention in the city named of the American Society of Plumbing Inspectors and Sanitary Engineers, City Plumbing and Sanitary Inspector Robert Ellithorpe will have two important recommendations to urge upon the city trustees through the next meeting of the board of health.

One of these with inquiries at Salt Lake City, Pueblo, Kans., Kansas City and Minneapolis, was made at the request of Mayor Snow. The result of them will be to recommend the installation of a 50-ton incinerator as the most sanitary, practical and advisable means of disposing of city garbage. Such a plant as recommended would cost $40,000 and would meet the demands of this city for some years to come. The installation of such an incinerator would involve necessarily a bond issue. This has always been the view of the mayor.

The action of the Minneapolis convention, in adopting an official design to mark public comfort stations gave rise to the further suggestion of the installation as a public necessity by the county and the city of such a station in the Courthouse park here. Ellithorpe would go further and have apartments at the courthouse, city hall, public library and auditorium and even at the large department stores converted into public comfort stations.

Pasadena and Fresno were the California cities represented at the Minneapolis meeting. The 1915 convention will be held at San Francisco and it will complete the national code for sanitation and plumbing to be prepared by the research committee.

Mrs. Frederick Liddeke is at home again after a most enjoyable summer visit with relatives at Burlingame.

Mrs. George Martin and her niece, Miss Dolores Poin, have returned from a summer's vacation spent in Oakland.

Mrs. Ed Vogelsang and two children are spending the week end with friends in Dinuba.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Hayes and children left yesterday to make their future home in Stockton.

Mrs. J. Norwood and two children have returned from Long Beach, where they summered.

Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Gallagher are at home after a summer's outing at Capitola.

The Florence Nightingale Circle of the First Christian church will hold its first meeting of the season, this afternoon at the home of Mrs. C. H. Irwin, 330 Blackstone avenue at half past two.

The Golden Rule Circle of the First Christian church will meet this afternoon with Mrs. J. H. Looney at her home, 309 Valencia street. An election of officers is to be a feature of the afternoon's business.

Mrs. Florence Thyland has received word from her sister and niece, Mrs. J. B. Dawson and Miss Mildred Dawson of Los Angeles, who were in London at the time war was declared, that they have been able to procure steamer passage on a liner leaving London in a fortnight.

Mrs. W. P. Willmott and daughter, Miss Forester Hughes, have returned from a summer's outing at Balsam Grove, at Big Creek.

Mrs. Theodore Homan returned early in the week from a vacation spent in San Francisco.

Mrs. R. P. Russell has returned from the east, where she has been visiting relatives in Iowa, and is now spending a few days with her son in Lindsay.

Mrs. Charles Laurent Beal and her mother, Mrs. M. E. Beal, and nephew, Charles F. Beal, returned yesterday from a month's outing at North Fork.

The young people of Grace M. E. church entertained last evening at a surprise party complimenting Miss Carrie Levey at her home on Palm avenue. Miss Levey is one of the 181 graduates of the Fresno Normal School and leaves soon to assume her duties as teacher at Helm.

Mrs. E. H. Tanner and children have returned from a six weeks' holiday at the southern beaches.

Karl Seaver was a youthful host on Wednesday afternoon, celebrating his ninth birthday in merry fashion, with a group of friends assembled to assist in the pleasures of the day. After games had provided their entertainment, tempting refreshments were served at a prettily adorned table in the dining room, where a dainty color scheme of pink and white was carried out.

Among those in the group were Bertha and Truman Carnahan, Hilary and Theodore Boyanone, Bertha and Christy Crain, Robin Robbins, Vincent Howel, Karl Seaver.

BIG ART EXHIBIT AT FAIR THIS YEAR

Mrs. Cox Securing Unusual Display; Excellent Quarters

That the Art Department is to be a greater success this year than ever before is the assurance given by Mrs. E. E. Cox who is devoting most of her time to this work. She is visiting all those who are interested in art and are urging them to make displays for the Fresno District Fair this year. The success she is meeting with has encouraged her very much and there is no doubt that the art display this year will be highly creditable.

The space devoted to art department has been enlarged and will give a dining room or buffet effect. The display of hand painted china will be particularly effective. A cream and brown effect is to be the color scheme. A unique lighting effect that will aid in the effectiveness of the display is also under consideration. The art and women's departments are upstairs in the pavilion.

One woman is going to exhibit her spreads, another fancy work valued at $1000 or more. This is imported from Europe and is of incredible softness and beauty. Mr. C. W. Allen of Selma expects to have 20 pictures on display.

Mrs. Cox will go to Selma, today or tomorrow to induce art lovers there to make exhibits at the fair. This is one of a series of trips being made over the county by her in the interest of the art department of the fair.

Harry McKee, the local lawyer, has a splendid lot of characteristic California scenes painted by C. A. Friess of San Diego. This is one of the best collections in Fresno and will probably be shown at the fair.

The premium list is as follows:

COMEDIANS FAIR AND COMEDIANS IN EBONY FUN AND FROLIC IN MANY GUISES AT PLAZA

Fall Announcement

Fall fashions are in. During the next two weeks this store will be a busy place, fitting out the early shoppers--men who have learned the wisdom of getting the "first pick."

Remember This—Each season the styles change just enough to rob an old garment of its former charm. New body lines, new patterns and new colorings make it hard going for the left-over suit.

It does not cost any more to buy early. And you are well dressed from the crack of the starting gun. Come in. Come in any way, even if you only "browse" around. Start in by looking at STYLEPLUS CLOTHES $17.

No need of thinking you can buy these clothes for less later on in the season. They are always one price and always quality you can trust.

If you have been in the habit of making your old suit do until late in the season for the sake of trying for a bargain, come here and try STYLEPLUS, a suit never sold for more and never sold for less--always a bargain.

Skillful fashion artists design the styles, workmen who are trained in producing STYLEPLUS quality apply the tailoring.

You could not secure such style and finish plus all-wool fabrics, plus good trimmings if the makers were not one of the largest in the country and did not specialize on this one suit.

We have other clothes. We have dwelt at length on STYLEPLUS simply because this suit appeals to so many men--in quality and in price.

Clever character comedienne of team Simonds and Platt at the Plaza.

The Plaza has had many a funny act and many a good bill, but it never had anything more genuinely funny than the riotous act of these colored boys, Johnson and Jones. People who seldom laugh put new laughs wrinkles into their faces last night. Even the saddest expressions were covered by smiles, and the continuous, hearty laughter was the best tribute that the clever comedians could have asked for. In front of the footlights there was an appreciative audience, and back of the footlights, crowding in the wings, was another, made up of stage hands and actors from other acts. For such comedy as Johnson and Jones offer is so refreshingly new and virile, that even the other comedians were forced to laugh. And that is the sincerest tribute of all.

It is a riot. An act of this kind can not be described. It consists of jokes that demand the personality of Johnson and Jones to make them funny. But every person who has listened to this pair will bear out the assertion that a funnier act has never been performed in Fresno. The athletic dancing is entirely new and a sensation all its own.

But there is another pair of comedians who can run them a pretty close second, and that is the singing and character change pair of Simonds and Platt. In any act that keeps a steady chorus of giggles coming from the crowd. The comedy is quick and clean

"HIS STOLEN FORTUNE" NOTED COMEDY DRAMA FINE PICTURE SHOWN AT FRESNO PHOTO THEATER

Francis X. Bushman—Fresno Photo today and tomorrow

An unusually interesting comedy drama, adapted from the story of "His Stolen Fortune," which was run some time ago in the Munsey Magazine, will be presented in photoplay form consisting of two reels, at the Fresno Photo Theater today and tomorrow.

Francis X. Bushman will play the leading role, that of an American chap who inherits a large fortune only to discover that his deceased uncle has stolen it.

Many Laughable Situations
Six months after his uncle's death, he finds a note which informs him that he must find the heir and return the money. Many humorous complications arise which will keep you laughing.

The cast is well selected and the photography is beautiful.
"Lad from Old Ireland"
Produced on Old Ireland
Terence, lad from old Ireland
Alleen, his sweetheart
Murphy, a landlord
Elsie Myron, an American heiress
"The Lad from Old Ireland," showing today, is a picturesque Irish drama produced by the Kalem Co. in the heart of the Killarney district of Ireland. Beyond a doubt this is one of the most charming productions ever made by the Kalem company.

Sidney Olcott and Gene Gauntier are in the lead, and this will prove of great interest to the patrons of the motion picture drama, as these two stars have always been such great favorites with everyone.

The plot concerns an Irish lad who arrives in America and, through vicissitudes, he is enabled to avert the cruel landlord.

Margaret Gibson in Western Drama
Margaret Gibson will also appear today in a thrilling Western drama, "His Kid Sister."

She comes to her brother's rescue and repays him for his love and kindness. She has the laugh on the sheriff after a daring ride and a slide down a rope. This is an exceptionally strong program for today and tomorrow, and will certainly be enjoyed by all that are fortunate enough to witness it.

ARMY OF STRAY DOGS SUFFERS LARGE LOSS

Sixty-Five Canines Are Done Away With at City Pound

The army of stray canines suffered a crushing defeat at the city pound the first of the month, when Poundmaster J. G. Lowry killed 65 dogs, wiping out the entire supply on hand. Since then stray canines about the streets have included the mongrel and net of the dexterous dog catcher and are fairly free and body whole.

According to Lowry, there are now few stray dogs in Fresno. Since he has been in office about 7,000 Fresno dogs have lost their lives because they wore no license tags and were chained by no one after being caught. Lowry asserts that the dog vagabonds of the city are about entirely cleaned out, though there are always a few to be found.

The number killed at the end of each month averages about 65 and only between ten and twelve dogs are claimed each month and the license fee paid to the poundmaster.

August was a lucky month for Fresno boys, as Lowry was away on his vacation and they were allowed to frequent the streets at all times and become as pernicious as they desired. Since his return, however, the dogs have been led a merry chase and many were given a free ride in the dog patrol to the city pound.

month of August. A transfer of $50,000 of unappropriated tax money was ordered, $30,000 to the general fund and $20,000 to the salary fund, besides $10,000 from the swamp land to the indigent fund. The apportionment of tax money will be made after the budget estimate and tax rates on the 14th. The transfers are temporary expedients.

BLACK LEG FOUND IN RANGE CATTLE

Outbreak Reported Due to Neglect in Vaccination of Young Stock

Livestock Inspector Otto A. Longley reports to the supervisors that an outbreak in cattle on the ranges in the High Sierras claimed attention last month. The losses numbered about 25 head. Eight hundred were vaccinated, all dead carcasses burned and the outbreak controlled.

Vaccination against this disease, says the inspector, has year after year reduced the losses to much less than in former years, and because of this, stockmen have become less vigilant and many have ceased to vaccinate. Every new outbreak, however, results in a new focus of infection, and since vaccination can be practiced at such a small cost it is hoped that the custom of vaccinating all young stock will be renewed with the old-time vigilance.

An outbreak during the month of hog cholera occurred, but with few losses. Serum was used with favorable results.

Several calves in a herd died from symptoms of fungus poisoning, but deaths ceased as soon as the animals were moved to new pastures.

LARGE BOOK OF PRIZES FOR THE STATE FAIR

Amusement as Well as Educational Features Provided

ENTRANCE TO THE STATE FAIR GROUNDS.

A booklet nine inches long and five inches wide and containing 144 closely printed pages is required this year to list the prizes that are to be awarded in the sixteen departments of the California State Fair which opens in Sacramento on September 12. The prizes are wide in range and each class contains valuable awards.

In many departments, notably in the poultry division, the rules have been revised and the prizes increased over last season. In the list of prizes awards are offered every product of California from dairy cattle to brown eggs.

The entries and registrations show that this year's fair will be the largest, most entertaining and instructive in the history of California state fairs. This will be the sixty-first state fair. In addition to the educational departments, there will be a variety of amusement features. The famous Russian Imperial Brass Band, under the leadership of Phillip Polz, will give daily concerts, while on Sunday, September 13, there will be an all-day band contest between the best amateur brass bands of California for $3,000 in prizes.

Each day during the week there will be a Wild West Show, a real, genuine, wild and woolly West rodeo with real cowboys and real cowgirls and horses that will buck for all they are worth.

A collision between two sixty-ton engines will also be staged at great expense, and there will be a horse show every night in a mammoth tent.

Expect Large Wing Ready on September 14, Date Term Opens

Public Utilities and Special City Elections Scheduled for October

Today is the day set for the outside election to determine whether Dean Addition shall or shall not be annexed to Fresno city. Dean Addition is a newly opened suburb southwest of town, south of Hazelton and between it and the brewery and by-product plants. G. E. Oyster is the prime mover in the annexation movement of this tract of outlying property and the polling place will be at his garage on Butler avenue. The small vote of residents is expected to be unanimous for annexation. The fact of the election has been all but forgotten by Fresno city residents, the election notice having been published in a paper of Sanger as the town with a paper nearest to the territory and not interested in the outcome of the election.

Mayor Snow returned yesterday morning to take up official work after a month's sojourn in the mountains at Pine Ridge. He says that the city special election to vote upon whether to transfer the control of the town's public utilities to the state board of commissioners and also whether to accept the annexation offers of Arlington Heights, Hazelton and Dean Park will be held on one and the same day. The call for this election could be made at the board meeting next Tuesday evening but that City Attorney Smith will probably not have returned from his vacation until next Wednesday. So being this election will probably not be called until the board meeting on the 21st for a date in October and before the November general election.

The city board will meet on Tuesday evening, Monday, Labor Day, being a public holiday. The police commissioners did not meet last evening, lacking a quorum with vacation absentee members. The park commission will meet this afternoon to pass upon the several donation offers of elk and buffaloes to start a zoological department.

PAID FIXED FOR ELECTION SERVICE

The supervisors yesterday established the schedule of compensation for the precinct boards of officers that served at the general primary election. The schedule is as follows: $5 in every precinct up to 75 votes polled, $7.50 up to 150 votes and $10 for any number above 150 voted ballots. The previous schedule was $5 for precincts up to 100, $7.50 up to 200 and $10 above 200 ballots. The election board claims will not be signed up for payment before the end of the coming week. Meanwhile not a few are cashing their assigned demands.

For Sallow, Blotchy, Rough or Greasy Skins

Some skins require constant grooming to keep them from becoming oily, muddy, blotchy or rough, or if such condition has developed, to overcome it. In such cases it is particularly indigestible to keep piling on cosmetics which close the pores, collect dust and dirt, making the complexion worse than ever. It's a lot more sensible to use ordinary mercurized soap, which literally absorbs a bad complexion. Apply the soap, like cold cream, before retiring; next morning, in washing it off, you'll wash away the dirt and the effects of the unsightly condition. Repeat for a week or two and you'll have an entirely new skin—soft, sunny, spotless and beautiful as a child's. One ounce of mercurized soap, procurable at any drug-gist's, is all you'll need.

FRESNO WOMAN BACK FROM THEATER OF WAR

Mrs. Ethel F. Stoddard Arrives in New York From Paris

Another Fresno woman who was in Paris when the European war broke out has returned to the United States, according to word received here yesterday. Mrs. Ethel F. Stoddard, daughter of J. J. Falkenstein of this city, who has been studying music in Paris and Naples for the past four years, wired her father yesterday morning that she had arrived in New York and would be home about September 20.

The last that had been heard from her prior to the telegram of yesterday was a letter written on July 30, in Naples. In that she said she was leaving there for Paris, where she had apartment. She had been in Naples for several months. Her people believe that she did get to Paris, but will probably not know anything definite of her experiences in the war center until her return here.

CONLEY ADMITS DEFEAT, REPORT

According to advices received in Fresno yesterday from San Francisco, Judge Conley of Malibu has conceded second place in the fight for chief justice of the Supreme Court to Judge Walter Hordwell of Los Angeles. Judge Angelotti and Judge Hordwell will be the nominees at the general election in November. Judge Conley being eliminated. The latest unofficial count of the

100 TONS FIGS SOLD ON BASIS OF 5 CENTS

Peaches Are Said to Be Running Heavily to Choice

That the war has had a strengthening effect on the fig market was demonstrated yesterday when an order was received by a local packer from Chicago for 100 tons, September delivery, at 1-1/2 cents net to the local packer. This is on a basis of 5 cents sweatbox, or nearly a cent higher than has been paid.

Many local packers have been buying figs from other packers at prices ranging from 4 1/2 to 4 3/4 cents to fill orders, and in many cases it is reported that these packers quoted free in the East at from 2 3/4 to 4 cents, but did not buy as they expected the market to drop.

While the peach market is still at a very low ebb, it is asserted that packers are very much disappointed over the grading showing that most of the fruit is running to choice. It is said that a large number of sales have been made in the East of fancy, extra fancy and Jumbo peaches, but that deliveries made thus far have failed to give the firms enough of those grades of fruit to fill orders.

Because of the apparent heavy run to choice, it is said that a spurt may be expected in peaches, as it is regarded as almost certain that packers will be out within the next few days looking for fancy crops from which to get fancy fruit to fill their orders.

vote cast at the primary election showed a vote to be about 20,000 votes behind Hordwell. Angelotti had a big lead over the other two.

ACCUSED CALLED FOR ARRAIGNMENT

Two Cases of Homicide Are Set for Trial for September the 24th.

Yesterday was arraignment day before Judge Austin of defendants awaiting trial on criminal charges before the two judges of the superior court.

Ray Nichols, accused of felony, was sentenced to imprisonment in the county jail for five months after acknowledging the theft of mechanic's tools from Carl Lisenby. The charge of a prior conviction for larceny in January, 1914, was withdrawn.

Joe Garcia, who slashed James Calahan with a knife, pleaded guilty and applied for parole.

Trial days were set in the following cases: 6. Nakahassani for attempted felony on the accusation of 11 year old Grace Crawford, Sept. 18; 7. L. Lowry for felony on complaint of 15 year old Gertrude Halstead, Sept. 22; 8. Chris Glens for an assault with a knife on Ralph Palumbo, Sept. 23; 9. Nicholas Webster for the homicide of Peter Haupt, and James Thomas for the killing of Marino Malavolta, Sept. 24. Both defendants committed without bail.

Informations were filed against Jake Fritzler for burning his property at A. and Ingo to defraud the insurer; (Charles Fetz) for drawing $15 check in Colliery without having funds in bank; and Edward V. King for stealing 1 1/2 Cory's automobile.

James Fagan Throws Little Light on Slaying of L. A. Woman

Will Be Returned on Bogus Check Charge;
Knew Robbers' Victim

Interest in the state-wide search for the murderer of Mrs. Maud Kennedy in Los Angeles Monday evening shifted last night to Fresno when it was discovered that James Fagan, sought by the southern anti-riot forces, was in the Fresno county jail. Waiting to be returned to Los Angeles to answer two charges of passing fictitious checks, Fagan is an intimate friend of the Kennedy family, but when seen fished to throw light on the murder mystery. Fagan has been in the local jail for two weeks and last night was the first time he had heard of the murder of Mrs. Kennedy. "I am sure," he said, "I could give a good clue as to the identity of the murderer but said he would have to think the matter over and would only give his information to a Los Angeles officer."
